

Town votes for change

SIX NEW COUNCILLORS ELECTED - FOUR VOTED OUT

LYME Regis has voted emphatically for change with six new town councillors being elected and four kicked out.

In what some senior councillors described as the "most dirty and under-hand election" for years, the new faces on the town council among the 14 successful candidates will be George Symonds, Anita Williams, Rikey Austin, Terry O'Grady, Mark Gage and Chris Clipson.

By Philip Evans

Casualties included long-serving twins, Stan and Pete Williams, who between them have given over 60 years of service, former mayor and tourism chairman Ken Whetlor, a councillor for over 20 years, and Ken Hitchcock.

Newcomers Duncan Lay and Stuart Carver did not win a seat.

The Lyme count at the district council offices in Dorchester was delayed after it was discovered the names of candidates on the ballot paper was different to those on the counting sheet.

Rikey Austin was named on the ballot paper but was referred to as Tracey Howe, her married name, on the counting sheet, which had to be changed before the count could begin.

Popular Lucy Campbell, the council's youngest member, topped the poll with 827 votes, followed by the mayor, Michaela Ellis (806), and Daryl Turner (796). Ken Whetlor missed being elected by just three votes.

WITH more than 30 years experience in the travel industry Sue Langdon, of Your World Travel in Lyme Regis, is the person to ask for your holiday tips.

After leaving school Sue spent six months working in a Pottery before beginning a career in the travel industry in 1979. Sue has been working at Your World Travel in Lyme Regis since 1985.

Sue lives in South Chard with her partner Ivor and their German Shepherd dog Molly.

This week Sue gave us her top destination tips for your 2011 summer holiday and also told us which "dishy" local celebrity she would like to have round for dinner.

■ WHAT is the top holiday destination for this year?

Greece is very popular, it's great value for money. We have Bermuda Day coming up on May 24th so we will be doing some special deals for that.

■ WHAT are the up and coming holiday destinations?

Croatia is becoming quite popular because it is non-euro. Cape Verde, is quite a new destination. It's on the same latitude as Barbados but it's not as long a flight as Barbados so that is becoming popular.

■ WHAT are your favourite holiday destinations?

I've been to Bermuda twice, Barbados, Mexico, and quite a lot of places in the Med. When I went to America we drove from Arizona all the way up through, past the Grand Canyon, to San Francisco. That was a really good trip.

■ ANYWHERE you'd still like to visit?

Yeah, loads of places. I'd like to go to New Zealand, I'd like to do Canada and I'd like to visit Italy as well.

■ DO you think people are cutting back on their holidays this year?

No I don't think so. People still want a holiday, they've still got to take the kids somewhere, whether it's this country or abroad. I think people are more likely to not bother with the new kitchen or not bother upgrading the car, but they still want their holiday.

■ WHAT are best UK destinations?

You can do Cornwall, the Lake District. We've got self-catering chalets, holiday parks, posh hotels, luxury breaks, spa breaks, golf breaks, all sorts. Boating holidays and holidays on canal boats are popular.

■ WHERE do you like to walk your dog?

We go up Lambert's Castle quite a lot. There are some woods near Forde Abbey which we go to sometimes. We live on an old farm so we've got quite a lot of land ourselves.

■ WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

I would like to invite Johnny Depp because he's gorgeous, Gino D'acampo - to cook a fab meal and entertain us and I just love the Italian accent, and Martin Clunes because he's an animal lover like me, and quiet dishy too.

■ WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

The last book I read, which I'm still reading actually, is The Brightest Star in the Sky by Marian Keyes. The last film I watched was my favourite film, the Green Mile. The last CD I listened to was Lady Gaga.

Tories win Lyme district seats

CONSERVATIVE candidates Daryl Turner and George Symonds have won the two Lyme Regis seats on West Dorset District Council.

Sitting member Councillor Turner, who changed

by Philip Evans

his allegiance from Liberal Democrat to the Tories during the last term, topped the poll with 716 votes with his running partner George Symonds, owner of the Marine Parade Amusements, also being elected with 654 votes in his first foray into local politics.

Independent Pat Hicks lost his seat, having polled 578 votes, finishing ahead of Owen Lovell (506 votes), who stood as an Independent. He lost his district council seat at the 2007 election when he stood as a Conservative, but he lost out on the Tory nomination this year to Mr Symonds.

Liberal Democrat Ann Sargent finished in fifth place with 504 votes.

Over 53.5 per cent of the electorate turned out in Lyme Regis, one of the highest figures for several years.

◆ IN CHARMOUTH Jane Bremner (455 votes) won the district council seat vacated by David Newsom for the Conservatives, beating Liberal Democrat Laura Noel (355 votes) into second place in a 58.2 per cent poll, one of the highest in the district.

The Conservatives strengthened their grip on West Dorset in the face of strong opposition over the controversial plan for new offices, winning four additional seats. The Liberal Democrats lost three seats.

◆ THE TRINITY Ward on East Devon District Council, which covers Uplyme, Combyne-Rousdon and Axmouth, was retained for the Conservatives by Ian Thomas, who lives in Ware Lane, Lyme Regis, with 764 votes.

His only opponent, Liberal Democrat Robert Jordan polled 257 votes. The turn-out was 50.6 per cent.

◆ DARYL TURNER - topped the poll with 716

A statement by Glenn Willis

FOLLOWING last week's front page story in which comments were made on Facebook about the Mayor's involvement in the organisation of the Royal Wedding celebrations at Lyme Regis Football Club, Glenn Willis has issued this statement:

"I WOULD like to thank View from Lyme Regis for this opportunity to put my personal comment forward. There are three simple points I would like to make:

1) I am truly apologetic for the manner in which the reported comment may have offended people. I would like to offer a full apology to members of Lyme Regis Town Council, staff and board members at Lyme Regis Development Trust and staff at InSPARation Youth Cafe.

I have attempted to offer a full apology and explanation to the Mayor. Unfortunately, she has refused to meet with me, as the Town Clerk has referred the matter to the council's solicitors. I wish to make it clear that the opinion I did express was of a personal nature and not connected to my role as chair of InSPARation Youth Cafe. In no way do I wish to damage the recent positive partnership working that is making such a positive difference to local services for young people.

2) I am unhappy with the general manner in which my comments, which were materially related to frustrations about access for disabled people, have been reported. I will continue to speak with View from Lyme Regis, who have been most supportive in this matter, to see if there is a positive way I can do this.

3) I would like to clarify the context of the comment I did make. They were made out of personal frustration about events not being planned with the needs of disabled people in mind. It bears no relation, attachment or association to the political context of last week's article. In hindsight this type of comment on Facebook was of poor judgement.

"Next time I seek to share my personal feelings about life as a disabled man in Lyme, I may just share them over a cup of tea rather than in cyber space."

Annual Royal British Legion quiz

NEXT Wednesday (May 18th) sees the fourth annual quiz hosted by the Royal British Legion at the The Nag's Head.

Vice-chairman of the Lyme Regis branch, David Manners, said he hopes the event will be a great success and will become continue to be a battle of wits. "The aim is to have as many different organisations from the town trying to win the prize trophy and the glory of beating all the others."

Teams of individuals can also take part at £2 per team member with teams of no greater than six people. The quiz begins at 7.30pm with questions set by Marion Bignall. The aim of the evening is not only to have some fun, but also to raise the profile of the Legion branch. The bar will be open for refreshments.

Said Mr Manners: "The Royal British Legion has

for 90 years helped servicemen and women to overcome financial, physical and mental difficulties. Every member has done their duty and deserve our support. The future of the branch is certainly looking brighter with the continued help of our community."

Remember the RNLI

THIS week is Remember the RNLI Week with the lifeboat charity highlighting the importance of gifts in wills.

Lyme Regis lifeboat station has received many bequests over the years, some running into tens of thousands of pounds.

One legacy, which remains anonymous, totalled more than £100,000 and was left to assist with the running costs of the Lyme Regis station.

Lifeboat Operations Manager in Lyme Regis, Grahame Forshaw, said: "We are deeply grateful for these gifts, but we are not suggesting people leave the charity millions of pounds - for example, £42 will buy a pair of yellow wellies for a crew member. We regard every legacy as a lifesaver."

The RNLI says that 60 per cent of its income is derived from legacies.

Seafront shops forced to close at short notice

By Paul
Crompton

TRADERS will not be compensated despite losing thousands of pounds worth of business when excavation work along Lyme Regis' seafront forced them close.

Gift shops and ice cream parlours were left with no option but to close when workman from Western Power Distribution began to dig up Marine Parade to provide a new electricity supply to Largigi House, the Marine Parade building which has replaced the Bay Hotel annexe.

Business owners say they lost up to £800 a day as tourists avoided the holes and barriers as work to supply a property along the seafront with electricity was carried out.

Shopkeepers were left angry after Western Power Distribution failed to notify them until the last moment of a start date for work to lay 100 metres of cable along Marine Parade.

A Western Power Distribution representative spoke to shopkeepers at the end of March and early April to inform them that the work was planned.

They were given notification dated March 4th from Western Power but the letter did not arrive until a few days before work was due to commence.

Owner of The Alcove shop and cafe Lee Hamlin

■ THEY SHALL NOT PASS! The road works which forced Marine Parade shops and cafes to close last week said: "We had no letter then people complained and we had the letter on the Thursday last week and they said it would start on Tuesday.

"We had to close all three shops on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday last week.

"The only reason we are open today is because we are taking deliveries because it's a waste of time as people are not walking past.

"What plans could we put in place, we had to close. We have stuff outside and we just couldn't operate and so we have lost takings for four days and the weekend wasn't brilliant because people were afraid to walk past the hole.

"It's a shame they didn't do it earlier on in January or February or even March. Why do it in May?

"We just want it to finish as soon as possible. We wouldn't have shut, we would've kept on trading."

A spokesman from Western Power Distribution said: "We couldn't send out a letter until we were sure of a start date because we had to get other organisations together and then send out a letter. We hold our hands up on that."

"I don't know why the notice was not given out, I don't understand why that didn't arrive."

"We had someone ask for an electricity supply and under our licence we have to supply it. I know access can be a problem but if we had to close any part of a path it is usually because of safety reasons and although the access may have been disrupted for some time the work will be finished on time.

They added: "Compensation is not an option. The terms of our licence states we have to do this work and we have no option, we have to do it. This is not a compensation situation here."

Town clerk Miker Lewis said he sympathised with the traders.

He said: The town council was informed of the work as a matter of courtesy but we did not get the letter until last week."

Hub seeking YouTube team for secret project

THE Lyme Regis Development Trust is urgently appealing for young or experienced amateur film-makers to help make a 'top secret' pop-style video to be screened around the world.

LRDT is holding a behind-doors meeting tomorrow evening [Thursday May 12th] to which it is inviting all locals who know how to make a YouTube-style video that will be shot in the town.

Tight-lipped organisers have refused to give details of the promo film - which they refer to as 'Project X'.

"We're looking for students, amateur enthusiasts and anyone who can help us film, edit and virally circulate a three-minute video which could be key to the future fortunes of the town," said a LRDT spokesman.

"Project X is an important and exciting scheme to bring Lyme to the attention of the planet. This is a whole-town project which will involve the entire community of Lyme.

"The film will be screened through YouTube but it's all top secret at the moment. Anyone who reckons they could help, from knowing how to shoot a short video on their camera-phone or locals who have more professional video experience, is urgently invited to attend the meeting, where details of Project X will be revealed in the strictest confidence.

"It's a great, feelgood project and Lyme will love it."

Would-be film-makers are invited to meet with LRDT chief executive Marcus Dixon and his aides tomorrow [Thursday] at 6.30 pm at the LRDT offices at the St Michael's Business Centre off Church Street.

The sea turns green - then red!

THE sea off Lyme Regis turned green yesterday (Tuesday) morning - and then an hour later turned red!

But it wasn't caused by some creature from the deep being washed up, or some terrible slaying out to sea. There was a much simpler explanation.

Several worried residents telephoned the View from Lyme Regis office, asking: "What's happening to our sea?"

Harbourmaster Grahame Forshaw was able to provide the answer. "Don't worry," he assured. "The Environment

By Philip Evans

Agency are carrying out some tests by putting dye in the drains in the Langmoor Gardens and further up the River Lim."

It was all part of the efforts to trace where effluent is finding its way into the sea, resulting in an adverse effect on the quality of Lyme's bathing waters.

Lyme Regis Town Council have been asked to consider de-designation of the Church Beach as an official bathing beach because of the amount of effluent that flows into the River Lim and eventually ends up in the sea.

Former chairman of the Tourism and Advertising sub-committee David Cozens told the council they had been warned that the Church Beach might never meet the criteria to be given a clean bill of health.

If the beach was de-designated bathers could make up their own minds whether they swam in the sea off Church Beach.

Several councillors expressed concern about de-designating the beach and thought more effort should be put into getting the relevant agencies to find a solution to the problem.

Councillor Daryl Turner, who at a previous meeting expressed the view that the beach was still well used by local swimmers, a view not shared by Councillor Cozens, told the last full meeting of the council, that he had been keeping a photographic record which proved that it was "extremely well used".

"How many people were swimming from the beach?" asked Councillor Cozens.

"If you look at the photos you will find out," replied Councillor Turner.

"I would if you had brought them along," said Councillor Cozens.

Time has come for a new beginning

■ CONGRATULATIONS to the six new candidates elected to represent us in last week's town council elections.

Expectations will undoubtedly be high now that such a dramatic change has occurred. But a change was desperately needed and clearly wanted so let us hope that those who failed to make it respond with both graciousness and dignity.

The time had surely come for a new beginning. With the stagnant rhetoric of the past now hopefully over and with fresh blood working along side those well established, future meetings and decisions will no doubt prove more than interesting.

Three cheers to the newbies and Three Cups to those that have sat on their hands and achieved nothing in resolving our biggest eyesore. Let us hope we have more guts and determination in chamber to finally deal with the issues that so many people clearly voted on.

Do I sense a skatepark on the horizon? Or maybe a rethink on the Strawberry Field situation; a solution to the dilapidated high street hotel, the renaming of the new rooms of the shelters from Lister and Langmoor to something like George Sommers, Jane Austen, John Fowles, or a suggestion made not by council but by the very same public that have been asked to help with the cost of building them?

All in good time I guess.

*Matt Puddy
Lyme Regis*

Thanks from the candidates

■ I AM disappointed not to have been re-elected; I am in favour of change and I feel that I would have been able to help new councillors to settle in and that with a new council we could have achieved more than has been done in recent years.

I would like to thank all those who have supported me over the years, including at this election. I intend to remain involved in issues concerning Lyme Regis specifically housing for young people, traffic and highways issues.

Stan Williams

■ I AM honoured to have been elected to the town council and look forward to getting started this week.

It is a bittersweet moment for me to have been elected at the time that my father, Stan Williams has not been re-elected. He has given an outstanding level of commitment to Lyme over the last 42 years and I'm not sure that anyone can follow in his footsteps.

I am disappointed for him but I know that he has plenty of interests to keep him busy and I doubt the Guildhall has seen the last of him!

I send my commiserations to all those who were not elected, especially my uncle, Peter Williams, Ken Whetlor and Ken Hitchcock who have all given many years of service to Lyme.

Anita Williams

■ I WISH to thank the voters of Lyme Regis for their support in returning me to Lyme Regis Town Council to stand as a councillor for a fourth term. As previously, I will act for what I see as the best interests of the town and townspeople, work to the best of my ability, and continue to consult with you.

Lorna Jenkin

■ CAN I thank everyone who helped and supported me in standing for Town Council and to everyone who voted for me. I was amazed by your support. And congratulations to all those councillors who where elected or re-elected. I'm looking forward to working with you.

Terry O'Grady

■ I WOULD like to thank all those who voted for me in last week's town council election.

I am sorry I was not able to be more active in canvassing in the run-up to the election but was prevented from doing so through ill-health.

However, I am looking forward to returning to my seat in the Guildhall and working with all councillors, old and new, for the benefit of all sections of our community.

Barbara Austin MBE

■ JUST a thank you for those who supported by attempt to regain my seat on WDDC. I wil continue to serve you on LRTC to the best of my ability. I wish the two successful district council candidates good luck for the future.

Owen Lovell

■ I WOULD like to thank all those who voted for me in last week's town council election and also all who those who supported and encouraged me.

Sally Holman

Not fair or accurate

■ I WAS away last week and unable to respond to Councillor Owen Lovell in time for last week's View From Lyme Regis.

I don't feel the councillor's statement "this is the most dirty and underhand election I can remember and it reflects the calibre of some of the candidates. It all emanates from Lyme Regis Development Trust and I believe this an attempt by them to take over the running of the town," to be either fair or accurate. I would welcome an invitation from Lyme Regis Town Council in an open forum to put the record straight.

■ FOOTBALL IN FASHION: The models at Lyme Regis Football Club with Garry and Clinton from South Coast Butlers

Fun fashion at football club

THE active fundraising committee of Lyme Regis Football Club, led by chairman's wife Heather Larcombe, was busy again on Friday evening with a summer fashion show in the newly extended clubhouse.

Frills Boutique from the Marine Parade in Lyme Regis provided most of the clothes, while shoes, hats and accessories plus a few of the outfits came from Sugar Plum Fairy, who travelled from

by Jackie Evans

Bournemouth.

Providing an extra touch of glamour to the evening were topless butlers Garry and Clinton from South Coast Butlers.

A large group of women enjoyed the catwalk show modelled by the Mayor Michaela Ellis, who selected the football club as her chosen charity during her term of office; Clare Herbert; Suzanne Thirwell; Francesca Evans; Lynn Paterson; Vicki White; Natalie Edmeades; Zoe Evans; Paula Thirwell and Lucy Coombe.

Comper for the evening was Philip Evans who complimented the fundraising committee on their tireless hard work and the models for conquering their nerves and providing a very professional and enjoyable show, which raised £450 for club funds.

Hairdressers' support Cancer Research UK

CUSTOMERS at the Moving Waves hairdressing salon in Silver Street, Lyme Regis, took part in a guess the name of the teddy bear competition and raised £100 for Cancer Research UK.

The salon is owned by Bob and Cynch McHardy, regular supporters of Cancer Research, and managed by Jane Caddy, who last week presented the money to the Lyme Regis fundraising committee.

The winner of the teddy bear was Mrs Rowland, of Up-

◆ THE next fundraising event to be organised by the Lyme committee will be a Summer Ball at Uplyme Village Hall on Friday, July 1st featuring a top band called "The Wise Guys".

Tickets at £35 will include a champagne cocktail, canapes and a buffet supper and there will also be a disco and auction. Look out for full details in next week's View from Lyme Regis.

Another chance to see 'All Over the Town' film

FILM buffs will have the chance to see the 1949 film "All Over the Town", made in Lyme Regis, at the Regent Cinema on the morning on Tuesday, May 31st.

With its outdoor scenes filmed in Lyme, this 'gentle satire of provincial politics' in a seaside town (Tormouth) beautifully evokes post-war Lyme Regis. Scenes and sights which today are familiar appear like old friends in slightly unexpected and nostalgic dress - instead of Tesco, for example, not even Woolworths, but a garage for the repair of all those black-only Fords ...

"All Over the Town" stars Norman Wooland as Nat Hearn, returning to his reporter's job on the Tormouth Clarion after the war. When circumstances conspire to give Nat a share in the business and the editor's chair, and being upset that the paper has been compromising its integrity to satisfy local businessmen, he radically alters its editorial policy. His stance brings him into conflict with local politicians and strains his romance with Sally Thorpe, played by Sarah Churchill (pictured). Stanley Baker (Zulu) and Patrick MacNee (The Avengers TV series) make early appearances in the film.

"All Over the Town" goes well beyond any cliché about the honest newsman standing up to a corrupt world. It deals with the discrimination faced by returning servicemen and women, and with the tensions between tradition and change after the war; it examines the nature of the social and political order in a settled provincial community at a time when social upheaval is not only in the air but is embodied in the post-war Attlee government. A reviewer concluded that "With a vein of dry wit running throughout, this is a very good picture that more people should be aware of."

That wasn't possible in later years, for no usable print remained. However, the negative survived at the National Film and Television Archive, and in 2005 the Lyme Regis Film Society came to the rescue, paying for a new print to be made and also for permission to show the film in Lyme Regis. The new print is kept safely in Lyme Regis Museum, along with contemporary posters and other related material. This print has been shown a couple of times at the Regent Cinema, the last occasion being around three years ago.

With the kind support and cooperation of Scott Cinemas and David Johnson, the cinema manager, all proceeds from this showing will be shared equally between the Town Mill Trust and the Marine Parade Shelters Fund. The costs of hiring the cinema are being generously covered by two sponsors, one for each of the two benefiting funds, so every penny from admissions will go to the two causes.

Tickets will be at normal cinema prices (Balcony: £6.50 / £5.00 concessions / £20 family; Stalls: £5.50 / £4.00 / £16.50). You can book in advance online (<http://lymeregis.scottcinemas.co.uk>), by phone (0871-230-3200) or in person at the cinema; or you can buy your ticket on the day. Coffee and cake will be available at modest cost from 10.15 am, with an opportunity to look at the exhibition material kindly loaned by the museum. The film will start at 11.00 and finish at 12.30.

New hairdressers in Lyme

ONE of Lyme Regis' most popular and experienced hairdressers has opened a new salon in Church Street.

Julie Andrews has 25 years experience in the hairdressing business, having studied for two years at Weymouth Technical College before joining Vincents Hair Design in Charmouth.

She then became a mobile hairdresser before opening her own salon, Hair by Julie in Silver Street, which she ran for 11 years.

Julie returned to offering a mobile service and has now opened Finishing Touch in Church Street in premises previously occupied by Aladdin's Cave, where she will be offering a service to both ladies and gents.

Julie has been open for just a week but is already encouraged by the support she has received from her regular customers.

Working with Julie will be another experienced Lyme Regis hairdresser, Gill Cleal, who has been in the business for over 30 years, much of that time with Julie Hayball at Style Inn in Drakes Way.

The Church Street premises have been converted into a light and airy salon in a modern and bold design by Julie's husband Chris, with assistance from Clint Flux (plumbing) and Matthew Hall (electrics).

The town is looking for change

THE town has spoken - and in the most emphatic way. Six new councillors in and four old ones out.

Lyme's electorate - numbering 2,980 in all, were given the chance for change and they have grabbed it in no uncertain manner with a turn-out of 53.5 per cent, the highest for many years.

The election has produced a much younger council for Lyme and many will see that as a good thing.

We should be grateful that there were 20 public spirited people prepared to put themselves forward and it would be appropriate to place on record the town's thanks for those who have been voted off.

The public may have kicked them into touch but Stan and Peter Williams and Ken Whetlor put in over 80 years of public service between them. Such commitment is unlikely to happen again.

The new councillors will quickly find that there are few bouquets

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

in local government but many brickbats. It's the nature of the beast.

But they arrive at the Guildhall at the start of an extremely important time for Lyme Regis.

The next two or three years will be dominated by the completion and management of the new-look shelters on the seafront. And there will certainly be controversy over the future running of car parking at Monmouth Beach with a large chunk of land possibly returning to the management of the town council.

The securing of car parking at Monmouth Beach could be a highly lucrative opportunity for the town council, but West Dorset District Council, if they lose that income, will certainly be looking to lessen their commitment to other facilities they run in the town.

These are just two of the issues that the new council will be grappling with as well as managing a £1.3 million budget.

Their first task will be to elect a new mayor tomorrow (Wednesday) evening and then appoint chairmen for the various committees.

The smart money is on Sally Holman being given a second term as mayor with a surprise candidate for the position of deputy mayor.

It would seem that Sally is the only experienced councillor likely to win enough support to command sufficient votes for the First Councillorship.

With backing from one or two of the more liberal (note the small l) existing councillors, it seems almost certain that the newcomers will represent the majority vote on the council and therefore will be keen to pursue their own agenda.

And that will certainly mean that some of the chairmanships will go to the new members, a big challenge for them.

There are only four of the old school left - outgoing mayor Michaela Ellis, policy chairman Owen Lovell, former mayor Barbara Austin and Ann Bradbury.

I expect newcomers Anita Williams (daughter of Stan) and George Symonds to see which way the land lies before throwing their lot in with any group, but the sparks may fly in the first few weeks of the new council whilst the inevitable jousting for the top jobs takes place. Strong chairmanship from whoever is mayor will be essential.

It will be fascinating to see who sits on the former aldermanic bench, in the past always the domain of the longest serving councillors.

There were rumours this week that some of the new councillors were meeting to discuss tactics, an understandable move for newcomers but I hope this does not become a regular occurrence. It rather blows their argument that they were not standing as a group and all decision making should be transparent and seen to be taken in public and not behind closed doors.

The newcomers have been given a mandate from the electorate of Lyme and they have some interesting ideas on how the council should be run in the future.

The most important factor now is that any animosity that still exists after the election campaign is put to one side and that the two factions come together for the wider interest of the town.

Hopefully, they will come to respect each other's opinions and be able to work together for all sections of the town and to get to grips with some of the problems which came to the fore during the run-up to the election.

Change there will inevitably be. As I say, the town has spoken.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

WITH no column last week, I was unable to comment on the success of the Royal Wedding celebrations at Lyme Regis Football Club.

Putting aside the unfortunate and quite unfair comments that appeared on Facebook about the involvement of the Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, which cast a bit of a shadow over the proceedings, I thought it was a brilliant event where local families came together to enjoy a special day in a safe and happy environment.

Had the event been held on the Marine Parade (much of which is closed due to the shelters regeneration), the celebrations would have been more public but staging the party at the football club meant that the townsfolk could exercise their choice of celebrating the royal couple's happy day or not.

What surprised me was the number of young people (many of them teenage boys) who crowded into the Davey Fort to watch the wedding on TV.

And whilst the celebrating went on late into the night, the occasion did not descend into a "massive booze-up", not quite the term used, as predicted to me by one of our election candidates when the town council decided to make the football club event the town's official celebration.

One sour note. A number of people asked me why there wasn't any bunting in Broad Street or even a Union Jack on the Guildhall to mark the occasion.

I have no answer to that; perhaps the town council felt it unwise to commit any expenditure to such a celebration during the current difficult financial climate.

Hopefully, the town will look a little more decorative for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee next year.

Lyme town crier retains Southern England title

LYME Regis town crier Phil Street retained the Southern England Town Criers' championship which was held in the Town of Wimborne Minster on the May Day Bank Holiday.

Traditionally the event has been held as part of the Blandford, Georgian Fayre at Blandford Forum but was first switched to Wimborne Minster two years ago when the fayre was changed to a biannual event. This was, therefore, the second occasion that Chris Brown, Wimborne Minster's town crier, took up the challenge to organise the event.

Twenty two town criers from across Southern England and one from Wales attended the event. The competition was over two rounds and the criers were led from the Minster by the Dorset Youth Marching Band to Waitrose Park where the first 'shouts' were undertaken. This was the "Howe Cry". Waitrose had generously sponsored some of the trophies.

Photocall

On completion of the first round the criers were led back to The Minster by the bands for a photocall by the Minster Press which had sponsored the printing of the programmes.

The second round, "the criers own choice", took place after lunch on the Minster Green in front of a good crowd of onlookers.

After a close run contest, Phil

Street was declared the winner. Second place went to Angela Standing from Arundel with third place going to Iain Mitchell, of West Moors. The Best Dressed Couple award went to Mike and Angie Bishop from Frome with Caroline Craner, wife of Crewkerne town crier David, winning the award. The Best Dressed Town Crier was judged to be Tony Evans from Nailsworth and Minchenhampton.

After the event Chris Brown said he was delighted with the way everything had gone and expressed his grateful thanks to all those who had helped to ensure that the day was a great success.

TAKE ON TOM

THROUGHOUT the spring and summer months View From Reporter TOM GLOVER is welcoming all challenges for this new column 'Take on Tom'.

If your club, group or organisation would like to be the focus of this column and could put Tom to the test then email him at tom@pemedial.co.uk or phone 01297 446154.

This week Tom joined instructor SIMON TODD for a Windsurfing taster session at the Official Test Centre at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy (WPNSA).

DESPITE having grown up at the beach, and tackled the waves in everything from rubber dinghies to tractor tyre inner tubes, my experience with organised water sports is minimal.

The closest I have come is attempting to surf whilst on holiday with a friend in France five years ago. After three days of trying to stand up I eventually gave in after the humiliating experience of being towed into shore by a kayaker, having been washed out to sea.

It was a situation I used all my swimming ability to try and avoid, as like most men I'd sooner be washed slowly out to sea than have to ask for help.

Naturally then I approached windsurfing with some trepidation. I love the idea of it, but surely it would take years of time, money and commitment to just become competent. What I could really gain from one morning at the WPNSA, other than a cold, I was unsure.

It proved however to be a very user friendly and enjoyable experience and in just a few short hours I felt I had achieved something, and to top it off I spent considerably more time on the board than in the water.

For most sports fans a chance to perform on the same playing field as their idols would be a priceless experience. How many snooker fans watching the world championships last week would have given their right arm to play a few frames at 'The Crucible'? Although I wouldn't recommend that as a form of payment as it could affect your game.

So with the London 2012 Olympic windsurfing course just minutes down the road it amazed me that there were only two of us booked in for a taster session on the morning in question. In a year from now people will be fighting just to get a glimpse of the water, fans are already waiting anxiously to see of their application for a ticket has been successful, and yet for less than the price of a ticket you can actually join the Olympians on the water any day of the year.

Once I arrived I was pleased to know I wouldn't be chucked straight into the water, I was given my wetsuit and life jacket and asked to meet my instructor at the water's edge to learn the basic techniques on the simulator.

The simulator was a great way of learning the ropes and an excellent place to start if you are feeling less than confident about entering the water.

Having mastered the technique on the simulator I certainly felt confident when entering the water. I popped up onto the board and got the sail out of the water with no problem at all. A natural. I then tried to turn and went flying uncontrollably into the early morning Portland waters. Suddenly I was glad of my wetsuit.

A few more attempts though and I was starting to get the hang of it. Unlike surfing you aren't reliant on catching the wave and there is considerably less safety risk without the tides to contend with and so you can get to grips with the technique in your own time.

I had soon overcome my shaky sea legs and was then focusing on gaining speed and making turns. I did, of course, fall in a few more times than the young British Olympic hopefuls who were training alongside me but my water breaks did become fewer and further between as the time passed.

Once you are up on your feet and feeling comfortable you can then enjoy the perfect setting around you and it becomes clear why Portland was the obvious choice for the London 2012 Olympic organisers.

If you are visiting the area on holiday then I would implore you to take the opportunity to test out the Olympic waters. If like me you have lived with the venue on your doorstep for years and never tried it then I would advise you the same. You might just see the Jurassic Coast from a whole new inspiring and breath-taking angle.

LYME REGIS FOSSIL FESTIVAL - ART IN THE TENT

■ PORTRAIT painting in the "Art In The tent" event

Launch of the Real Fishing Rubbing Co

THERE was something fishy going on at the Fossil Festival in Lyme Regis.

Whilst the unique event attracted fossil lovers from far and wide, Bank Holiday Monday's "Art In The tent" event saw the launch of a new Lyme-based enterprise with a distinctly fishy flavour.

Local artist Christine Allison, who spent the weekend in the grand marquee co-ordinating the production of a fabulous fishy collage depicting the wide variety of fish caught in Lyme Bay today, and business owners Tony and Stephanie Colston, launched The Real Fish Rubbing Company, offering a range of super soft organic t-shirts featuring images of some of Lyme Bay's most memorable marine life.

But these are not just any old images – they have been produced using the ancient Japanese art of "Gyotaku", or fish rubbing. Tony and Stephanie came across the process during their travels and were so impressed with the results that they were determined to replicate it back home here in Lyme Regis.

"The challenge was that we are business people and not artists, so we needed a talented partner to help us bring the idea to life," said Tony.

The result is a collaboration with Christine, who has become fascinated by Gyotaku. "It's a slow and intricate process, but the results are wonderful," she said.

Using freshly caught fish and shellfish from Lyme Bay, she brushes each fish with colour, overlays the fish with fabric and then carefully rubs it with her fingertips to create mysterious and uniquely realistic images, which are then transferred on to the t-shirts.

The Real Fish Rubbing Company is initially offering four designs – John Dory, Crab, Plaice and Bass – which can be seen and ordered through the website www.the-realfishrubbingco.com or purchased directly from Ecologically Yours on Broad Street in Lyme Regis.

LYME REGIS' diverse and talented arts community took over the Fossil Festival marquee on Bank Holiday Monday to stage an "Art In The Tent" event which attracted a large crowd throughout the day.

The event provided the ideal opportunity for members of the Lyme arts community to show off their many skills and to promote the annual ArtsFest which takes place September 17th to 25th.

ArtsFest director Sally Holman said: "The artists were delighted to be able to contribute to the Fossil Festival and it helped towards the financing of the marquee."

"We had a very positive reaction from the public and many of them went home with a piece of unique Lyme Regis art."

'Laughing, aching and feeling alive'

■ EXHILARATING: Members of Lyme Regis Gig Club enjoying the Pilot Gig Championships in the Isles of Scilly

by Marcus Dixon

LYME REGIS Gig Club travelled out to The Isles of Scilly to compete in the 22nd Pilot Gig Championships over the May Bank Holiday, racing against 130 boats representing south west seafaring towns and villages.

The event brings together teams from the semi-professional to the amateur, from the young, muscular and fit to the rather older and less streamlined to battle through the, often rough, waters off England's rocky western coast for the most highly prized gig trophies.

The evening of Friday, April 29th saw the first Veterans' Races, for those over 40, staged over the 1.59 nautical miles of squally sea from St Agnes to St Mary's Quay. First away were the 52 gigs comprising ladies crews and Lyme Regis Gig Club had two teams in the starting line up. After a hard fought race the A team in Black Ven came in 45th and the B Crew a close 47th.

Competing next were the Men's Veterans who raced with 64 boats over the same course, with Lyme represented by three crews. The Lyme Regis Veterans Men's A team achieved an impressive 15th with the B team 24th and the C team bringing up the rear in 65th place.

The main events at the championships were the four gruelling races held over the Saturday and Sunday in steadily deteriorating weather, under a grey sky and in choppy seas.

Ladies and later the men followed each other to row out to the starter's line for their first races, both of which saw 124 gigs competing over the St Agnes to St Mary's course in a rolling swell and high winds. On crossing the finishing line of the first race the competitors were then sub divided by their placing into divisions of around 12 evenly matched gigs.

Each division then competed in three following shorter races held over the 1.16 nautical miles from Nut Rock to St Mary Quay. The winning two gigs in each of the first two short events went up to the next level and the last two dropped down and the championship prizes were awarded following the final races.

The ladies were first to row out to the start line with Lyme Gig Club's A Team racing Black Ven and the B Team in Rebel. The championship competition was fierce not least between the competitive Lyme teams who after the flag dropped fought it out between themselves and the rest. After the long race the two Lyme ladies teams were both in Division F where they continued to battle it out, with the B Team being ahead in one race, but the duel being finished off in fine style by the A's who won the final race, which saw them on the podium taking the divisional prize.

The ladies event saw 124 gigs competing with Lyme A Team coming in 61st and the B Crew 67th, 45 places up from their 2010 placing.

The men's event was also closely contested with Lyme's A Team in Black Ven being ceded in Division D and finishing a fine 42nd up 23 places from the previous year and the town's B Team finishing 91st. The winners of this year's Pilot Gig Championships were the brilliant teams from Falmouth who carried off both the ladies and men's winners trophies.

Each year the Isles of Scilly stage a remarkable championship that sees hundreds of people pitching their skill, courage and determination at sea with long oars and in beautiful traditional pilot gigs to be part of a team, to do their best and see how good they can be. It's a fantastic, exhilarating, punishing series of races that leaves you laughing, aching and feeling alive. Lyme Regis Gig Club is planning to do even better next year. Creature Comforts

Here in the heart of Bridport town is your very own Grooming Salon with purpose built rooms and all facilities required to pamper your pets. Our staff are experienced, qualified or training and eager to help with any enquiries for which type of service your pet may need. We offer a variety of treatments, ranging from a bath to freshen their coat, using carefully selected shampoos specific to their coat type. A clip, trim, nails, glands, micro chipping service or the whole lot.

We also have our very own pet photography service for you, your pet or the whole family to share and enjoy. All our services can be found on our various websites which are linked to each other for ease of access.

Why have all that messy hair all over the house and the inconvenience of staying home when you can drop off your pet and return a few hours later to a happy, fresh and smart pet. We have a waiting area with refreshments if you choose to wait during your pet's stay or even make the most of booking our "Collect & Return" service direct to your door. Each month we have special offers so look out for these on our website or why not pop into the salon for an informal chat or grooming advice.

We also have a new member of staff, Miss Nadia Djeebet who has already taken her First Aid course for animals at Kingston Mauward and also accepted on this years NVQ Grooming Course. Nadia has a passion for animals which clearly shows in her calm, kind approach to handling the pets she helps to groom.

The Bull Hotel/The Stable

Whether it's The Bull's easy-going moules-frites (now a Wednesday night institution in Bridport), laid-back market-day brunch, a lavish celebration meal or morning coffee and cakes, they cater for every occasion with relaxed, rustic food.

Head Chef Marc Montgomery, formerly of Marco Pierre White's Talkhouse in Oxford, runs a busy kitchen, baking all of the bread, cakes and scones in-house and crafting a daily menu that lets the quality of the local, seasonal produce shine.

Canapés are served in the Venner Bar on Friday nights (another local institution) and the pretty courtyard garden, the original stable yard, decked out with bunting and fairy lights, is an idyllic setting for a light summer lunch or evening cocktail.

The Bull has been runner up in The Observer Food Awards for two years - last year for Best Sunday Lunch category and the year before for Best Restaurant.

The Stable serves a vast selection of unique ciders, from single variety specials to proper local brews, wine by the carafe and a mouth watering range of home-made Dorset pizzas and pies, The Stable is a totally new concept that brings the best of the West Country to the table.

Situated in The Bull Hotel's historic stable block, expect hay bales, communal tables and just a hint of the Wild West!

JC Phillips & Son

JC Phillips & Son was established in 1901 by Josiah Charles Phillips supplying sands and gravels and general haulage for the local community. Further development saw the business turn to specialising in bird grits and aquarium gravels and also to water filtration media. The business today still supplies these specialist markets but also provides a wide range of building aggregates, sands and decorative gravels and cobbles to both trade and retail customers. Stockists of both Bradstone and Brett paving (including natural sandstone and slate paving) the company offers a wide range of garden landscaping products including slate monoliths, drilled stones for water features, Purbeck walling stone and crazy paving and top soil.

All sands and aggregates are available in bulk, 25g or 1 tonne bags collected or delivered using crane offload if required. A Ministry approved weighbridge ensures correct bag and vehicle weight.

Elwell Boarding Kennels

Nestling in the heart of the West Dorset countryside, we are tucked right away from the noise and bustle, but we're still only a ten minute drive from Bridport town centre and the A35.

Are you looking for a safe and secure holiday home for your dog, or livery for your horse? Then do have a browse around our site - we're really proud of our super new kennels, and our snug stables offer everything you need for full, part or DIY livery.

For more information, please contact us by e-mail (nell@elwellfarm.co.uk) or phone (01308 488923). Andrew and Nell look forward to hearing from you, answering your questions and providing five-star accommodation for your four-legged friends!

Old pension plans gathering dust

The Pensions world can seem confusing and full of Jargon at the best of times, but the sad fact is that most of us do not have sufficient monies put away for retirement and indeed, those of us who do save, quite often the pots are not doing anything more than gathering dust like the statements in the cupboard.

At Pennywise we have a different approach, it's about the long haul, reviewing your pension plans every year to see how they are doing and most importantly make sure the money is in the right place to benefit from some growth. Too often pension plans are set up and then never looked at again. The world is an ever changing place and pensions are no different in that respect. What is a good investment today will not necessarily be what was best 10 years ago, likewise in 10 years time the picture may be very different.

It does not cost to have an Independent Pension review and with some minor changes there can be a marked difference in the value of your pension pot at retirement. The reality is that the more money in your Pension at retirement, the better your choices and the more income you will be able to purchase.

So call us today for a Professional Approach to Retirement Planning on 01305 268942.

History of the Oakroom

The Monmouth Rebellion

The Duke of Monmouth landed at Lyme Regis on the 11th June 1685 to challenge King James' claim to the throne, following the death of Charles II. He assembled an army in excess of 3000 men and marched to Sedgemoor in Somerset.

He was defeated by the King's army in less than a month. Around 1300 were taken prisoner. Five Judges came to Dorchester with the infamous Judge Jeffreys, whose reputation was that of the 'hanging judge'.

In September 1685, 312 cases were heard in the Oakroom at the rear of the Antelope Hotel; of these 292 were sentenced to death. Only 74 were executed, with 175 transported, 9 were fined or whipped and 54 were discharged.

Judge Jeffreys - having his eye on promotion - was later made Lord Chancellor.

When King James fell and William of Orange landed in Torbay, Jeffreys was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London. He died in 1689 while awaiting trial, probably of natural causes. Rumours at the time said he has been poisoned while in the Tower and that his body had been returned to Dorchester and walled up in the Courtroom - now the Oakroom.

This 17th Century Oak panelled room has been carefully restored to maintain its character and original features.

Today it is called The Oakroom and is a delightful tearoom, with a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere, replicating the style and service of a Lyons Corner House.

The Oakroom of today serves a variety of light meals throughout the day, lunches and of course, Dorset Clotted Cream Teas.

Antelope Walk, Dorchester

This 17th Century Oak panelled room is reputed to have been the courtroom of the infamous 'Judge Jeffreys'.

A good cleaner is hard to find!

A good cleaner is hard to find. The average rate of pay for cleaners and the general nature of the job means that the industry attracts the less reliable, and less competent of staff, and many who are capable of doing a good job are not prepared to do so because they see their selves above the job. However there are some good cleaners out there and I am one of them! Cleaning is an important job and the world would be awful place to live in if we didn't have cleaners.

I have gained over eight years experience in cleaning as an employee, which started whilst studying for my law degree in Preston, Lancashire, and have worked in a variety of settings.

I worked in Royal Preston Hospital for Sodexo where I cleaned the Radiotherapy Unit, Critical Care Unit, and Operating Theatres, and was then later directly employed by the N.H.S as a Critical Care Health Care Assistant where much of my job involved cleaning such as cleaning bed spaces and medical equipment. I also cleaned for R.O.M.E.C (part of Royal Mail) where I cleaned Post Offices and Sorting Offices across Dorset, with Parts of Somerset and Hampshire including Poole Mail Center.

Spotlight on Eliza Carthy

ELIZA Carthy is undoubtedly one of the most impressive and engaging performers of her generation. Twice nominated for the Mercury Prize and winner of innumerable other accolades over a 15 year career, Eliza has performed and recorded with a diverse array of artists including, Paul Weller, Rufus & Martha Wainwright, Nick Cave, Patrick Wolf and Bob Neuwirth.

More than most, Eliza Carthy has revitalised folk music and captured the most hardened of dissenters with intelligent, charismatic and boundary-crossing performance.

Eliza grew up immersed in the world of traditional music. She still divides her time between touring and recording with her legendary parents, Martin Carthy and Norma Waterson, as well as engaging in numerous pioneering solo and band projects, including work with Pere Ubu and Melanie Challenger, an artist in residence in Antarctica.

Her new album Neptune was released on Monday. Recorded at Castle Studios, Edinburgh and co-produced by Dave Wah and Eliza Carthy, Neptune is the solo follow up to 2008's Dreams of Breathing Underwater and the first record to be released through her own label, HemHem Records.

Last year's album Gift (a collaboration with her mother Norma Waterson), received widespread critical acclaim and picked up 'Best Album' and 'Best Traditional Track' accolades at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards. Having recently toured with folk collective The Imagined Village, Carthy embarks on shows with her own band this week - she plays Bridport Arts Centre on Friday.

"This album is a step on from the 'Ben-Hur-style, everything with extra horse, seven years to make approach' we had to the last one," explains Eliza.

"Me and my lovely, talented and stylish band in a room playing together, like the Romans did, in a couple of weeks. Ah, the good old days."

"Neptune relates to an astrological reading I had done by a friend of the family," recalls Eliza.

"The material on the album is ordered chronologically and is about the last ten years of my life. It's a story about ending relationships and beginning new ones with their own imperfections, and is about the thought that nothing is perfect, even when written in the stars. I'm still an old romantic though and partial to odd quotes from old television programmes."

Displaying Carthy's trademark eclectic flair and lush vocals, Neptune is brimming with poignant observations on British life.

"Britain Is A Car Park" is a song that imagines a near and possible future where we from our tiny island have all moved to Spain, and left our cars behind to be looked after by people who can't afford to move to Spain... then we all enjoy the unique local food, with chips, naturally."

So the new album's out this week. What can people expect from it?

Me and my band being lovely. We hope. Poetry and humour out of dark times.

How different is it working on a solo album than it is to collaborating with, say, your mum and dad?

It's nice being able to make an album and go out looking like this.

Did you ever feel any pressure to live up to your parents' reputation when you decided to make a career out of music?

Absolutely. I try to be a bit nicer to myself these days though. You can only do your best.

You're at the start of a new tour. What've you got planned for it? Any surprises?

The new material is fun to play, so just that. We've been working on the strings, the fiddle, bass and cello. It's rather beautiful.

Do you prefer being out on the road than to being in the studio?

They have different charms. In the studio you get to go home every night.

What do you think of the success of the likes of Mumford & Sons and Laura Marling, the so called 'nu folk' artists?

Good luck to them.

You've collaborated with a huge number of artists over the years. Who has been your favourite to work with?

Paul Weller. He's a nice man with a beautiful voice. Having him sing to you or near you is a lovely thing.

Is there anyone you haven't worked with who you'd like to?

Freddie Mercury.

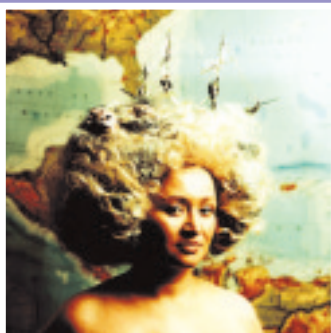

The West Country has always been very receptive to folk music - and not just since Show Of Hands came on the scene! Do you find it an area of the country that's particularly in tune with your music?

It always feels here like people want to be entertained. Some places just want you to impress them, and they sit back with their arms folded until you do. It's friendlier the West Country way.

Tell me a little about The Imagined Village. It sounds a crazy idea on paper but has certainly captured people's imaginations.

It's just a way to get different English communities playing together around one idea. Well, it was. Now we're more of an eleven-piece autonomous collective it's eleven ideas. I like the fact we're a real band now as opposed to a concept.

■ ELIZA Carthy and her band play Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, May 13th at 8pm. Tickets: Standing £15, £14 members, £10 concs / Balcony £17, £16 members, £14 concs. Call 01308 424204 to book.

Boogie on down with Ben

SO local man plays live concert to raise money to keep the swimming pool at his children's school open; no big deal, heard it before?

Apart from the fact whoever it is doing it should be congratulated for helping to raise funds, in this case it is a little different, as it will also be the Dorset launch of his new album which includes a host of legendary rock stars going back over the last fifty years!

Ben Waters, one of world's leading Boogie Woogie/Rock N Roll piano players will be featuring some of the songs from the album 'Ben Waters, Boogie4Stu', a tribute to Ian Stewart, pianist and founding member of the Rolling Stones in the 'Broadmayne Live' concert at Broadmayne First School this Saturday (May 14th).

Stewart died of a massive heart attack in 1985 and Ben has dedicated all sales from the album to The British Heart Foundation. He had also been asked to do a concert to raise funds for the swimming pool, so he decided to put the two together and make it a joint concert.

Waters will be joined on stage by The Devil's Rejects and Shooter for what should be a terrific night of music.

Besides all the Rolling Stones who have all made contributions by singing and playing on some of the tracks, there are also guest appearances from Jools Holland, and two well known Bridport musicians, PJ Harvey and Hamish Maxwell.

Gates open 6pm. Tickets £12 in advance; £15 on the door. Available on line from www.broadmayne.live.co.uk; Tel 01305 534415 or from: Broadmayne School Office, Broadmayne Village Shop The New Inn, West Knighton The Black Dog and Broadmayne Nordale Farm Shop.

"A spokesman said: "Ben agreed to do the concert and is paying a wonderful band to back him for the evening with very special guests and is happy to help this school as his children have had such a fantastic time there."

He then decided it would be great if we could turn this concert into a double charity event. Ben and the band could do the concert to raise money for the school and also use the gig as a Dorset album launch, playing material off of the album; people could also buy the new CD thus raising money for the Heart Foundation as well."

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IRIS Elliot of Lyme Regis has sent us another verse. "Although my age is definitely Winter", Iris says, "I have Spring in my heart".

BLISS IN SPRING

Do I believe in magic?
Certainly I do

When in the cold and frozen earth
Snowdrops come peeping through.

Do I believe in miracles?

I have to nod my head
As crocuses and cheerfulness
Rise from my flower bed.

When celandines and bluebells
Adorn the woodlands rise
Awakening from their deep sleep
Appear before my eyes.

I believe within this fragile world
There's such a thing as fate
For in my fast declining years
I've found my own true mate.

The whole nation enjoyed the romance and the splendour of the royal wedding and many more marriages will follow in May. This happy lyric, written of course by the great W.S. Gilbert, comes from "The Gondoliers".

WHEN A MERRY MAIDEN MARRIES

When a merry maiden marries,
Sorrow goes and pleasure tarries;
Every sound becomes a song,

ReView | Lonely Boys at Bridport Arts Centre

A MOVING, entertaining and unique production delighted audiences at Bridport Arts Centre last week.

Lonely Boys was the latest offering from Bridport filmmaker Clive Whaley and the risky experimental format of the show paid off in spades.

Described as a docu-suical or an operamentary the show combined pre-recorded one-to-one interviews with its three stars, with music performed on the night by a live band and the stars themselves.

The film itself was beautifully shot highlighting the stunning Dorset countryside at its finest. Almost every shot in the film would not have been out of place if it were captured and hung on a gallery wall.

The documentary style interviews looked at men's views on lust, love and loneliness, and how these views change in the different stages of life.

The 'Young Boy' was Dewi Lambert who spoke openly about his fears for the future and his difficult time at University. His moving interviews were interspersed with song, including the entertaining 'Quivering Jelly' which lifted the mood of the show perfectly.

Representing the 'Middle Age Boy' was Clive Whaley himself who talked about the love of his wife and children and then very movingly in the second half about his recent battle with depression.

The 'Old Boy' was John Surry, a familiar face to many in the town. John provided many a laugh with his anecdotes and his views on Facebook and Twitter. He too was very brave in sharing his fears of death and got the show off to the perfect start with the song 'I was there'.

The songs, written by Clive Whaley and arranged by Steve Jones, added a truly three-dimensional feel to the production and complimented the show with the perfect amount of light and shade.

The musical accompaniment by Andrew Dickson, Robert Lee and Steve Jones was faultless throughout.

To speak so openly on camera, and to an audience of many friends and family, was an immeasurably brave thing for all three men to do but it was unquestionable success.

The different generations represented in the audience could all be heard laughing at different times as they related with the men, and a few tears were shared at the end as the show explored its darker themes.

As well as being a great success as a production the show also raised money and awareness for the Dorset Mental Health Trust who took all the profits from the show.

Bridport Choral Society Spring Concert full of contrast

BRIDPORT Choral Society's Spring Concert on Saturday, May 21st promises an evening of contrast. The first half of the concert will include Psalm 23 (to the theme of 'The Vicar of Dibley'), "Ave Maria", and Faure's Requiem. Soprano soloist Anna-Maria Geare will sing of everlasting peace in the ethereal 'Pie Jesu'; baritone John Thorogood will conjure up the terrors of judgement day when he pleads for deliverance in 'Libera Me'.

Later, we shall be transported to Spain for a concert version of Bizet's Carmen, with its gipsy dances and the stirring March of the Toreadors, under the baton of Musical Director David Knight.

The concert is at 7.30 pm in Bridport United Church; admission £6 adults, £3.50 children, at the door or from Bridport Music or the Tourist Office.

Anna-Maria Geare

that our English has been Americanised we don't get jilted anymore do we: we get 'dumped' instead.

JILTED

My love, he loves another,
And has no time for me
With her as his companion
He wanders far and free;
He boasts about her contours,
(All others they've surpassed)
And even is so shameless
As to admit she's fast.
About her gliding movement
He does not cease to rave
For hours he waits upon her,
An abject, willing slave.
He never even noticed
My hat with mink tails on it
But begged me to enthuse on
The beauty of her bonnet:
He brags that she is silent
And very sweet to handle -
It's plain that to his new car
I cannot hold a candle.

Lyme Regis Sailing Club celebrates 90th year with open day

LYME Regis Sailing Club will host a sailing open day on Sunday, May 22nd, celebrating the 90th year of the club.

Whether you have never sailed before or perhaps did so long ago, LRSC invite you to take this opportunity to sail with an experienced club sailor, visit the club and see the facilities on offer, meet club members, and enjoy lunch from the galley and a drink from the bar.

The Club was formed in 1921 and in its long history it can boast a considerable reputation for hosting national sailing events, cruising sailors who have undertaken lengthy voyages, and having many national champions amongst its membership. Despite this it retains a warm welcoming informal and friendly atmosphere towards all those who visit it.

For much of its life it occupied premises above the aquarium on the Cobb, but in 2000 a lottery grant was obtained and a purpose built building above the slipway was constructed. The new premises offer first rate facilities, with male and female changing rooms, sun deck, club-room, bar and storage for its safety boats, whilst launching and recovery within the shelter of the Cobb Harbour is relatively easy.

The Club has around four hundred members with racing taking place regularly on Sundays and Wednesday evenings in a mixed handicap fleet. Lasers, phantoms, scorpions, albacores and medinas are present in the largest numbers but many other classes are well represented.

Formalised training is undertaken by Lyme Regis Sea School which is a Registered Training Establishment for the RYA, has a large fleet of dinghies and runs courses throughout the summer for both adults and children.

On a Tuesday evening an active Youth Section takes place with children from the age of ten upwards taking part under the instruction of experienced sailors. They use the Sea School boats and as the students gain experience they progress to become instructors themselves and participate in the adult racing. The evening is always a lively affair and finishes with a supper.

An excellent social program operates throughout the year with delicious meals served by our regular caterers whilst a well stocked bar is run by our regular barman Mike.

Few things in life can afford more pleasure than to have had a great day sailing, then round it off back at the Club with a delicious meal and a drink whilst sitting above the harbour on the sun deck, among good company, as the sun goes down.

For more details or to book your place on the open day (available to 18 year olds and over), email mercers@aol.com with your name, address and telephone number

TAKE ME HOME TONIGHT 15

It's the late 1980s, when Wall Street is riding high, and it seems as if the entire country is cashing in on the bumper profits. Disgusted with the materialism that surrounds him, Matt Franklin (Topher Grace), a brilliant young MIT graduate, has walked out on his well-paid position at a local lab and taken a low-level job as a video clerk, much to his father Bill's consternation. And the crises keep piling up in Matt's life. His best buddy Barry has just gotten fired from his job, his brainy sister Wendy is getting hitched to her vapid boyfriend Kyle, and the gorgeous Tori Frederking, long-time object of Matt's unattainable adoration, is suddenly back in the picture. 'OH MARY' - A TALE OF TRANSPORTATION, LOVE AND ESCAPE AT DORCHESTER ARTS CENTRE CORNISH actor Bec Applebee presents 'Oh Mary' - a one woman show based on the incredible life story of Mary Bryant - Cornish highway woman, convict, mother and maritime adventurer. This true story is a swash-buckling tale of transportation, love, escape, tragedy and redemption that spanned the world between Cornwall and Australia.

Mary was born in Fowey Cornwall, in 1765. After a stint of petty crime she was arrested and found guilty of violent highway robbery having stolen a bonnet and some money. She was sentenced to hang but was given a reprieve and sentenced to seven years' transportation to Australia. On arrival in Australia Mary was married to

"She (Mary Bryant) is at the heart of one of maritime's greatest escapes. I find her tale truly awe inspiring"

Bec Applebee

William Bryant a fellow convict and three years later the pair escaped to sea with their young family. This extraordinary voyage has become part of seafaring history.

Bec is well known for her work with Kneehigh Theatre Company as well as being a musician with the Cornish band Dalla. This performance uses a mix of dramatised story telling and an evocative narrative to create a surprising, funny and moving tale or adventure.

'Oh Mary' is on Friday, May 20th at 8pm at Dorchester Arts Centre. Tickets cost £8 / £6 members and concessions and are available by calling 01305 266926, or online at www.dorchesterarts.org.uk.

with male voice choir in aid of RNLI

SOPRANO Jacqui Piper, a Lyme Regis resident since 1984, is to feature as soloist when the renowned Taunton Dean Male Voice Choir perform at the town's Woodmead Halls on May 21st.

The choir of 45 voices will be singing in a concert arranged by the Lyme Regis and Charmouth RNLI Guild in aid of the lifeboat charity.

Jacqui trained at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama and sang with the Central London Opera. She has appeared on television in Bermuda and on Radio Devon for BBC Music Live. Jacqui has also appeared at many open air festivals with male voice choirs, and her repertoire embraces a wide range of arias from opera, light opera, musicals, ballads and sacred songs.

Taunton has had a flourishing male voice choir for 65 years, and one of its aims is to help organisations raise money for charitable causes.

Each year the choir performs at least 14 charity concerts and helps to raise many thousands of pounds.

With an extensive and varied repertoire the choir has sung with massed choirs at the Royal Albert Hall at VE Day celebrations in Hyde Park and at Wells Cathedral.

Tickets for the Woodmead Halls concert are available at £4.50 at the RNLI shop at the Cobb, at Martin Diplock estate agents or by phone 07831 533580.

ARTIST STUDIOS/OFFICES TO RENT BETWEEN BRIDPORT & LYME REGIS £180 - £250 PCM INCLUDING BILLS

ARTWAVE West opened in June 2009 following a huge refurbishment of the former Ship Inn, Morcombelake. The gallery has been carefully designed to show Contemporary Art in the large, open plan downstairs space. It has got off to an impressive start, with hundreds of visitors coming to see the collection of paintings, all with positive things to say. The most frequent comment is, 'This is such a tremendous space to look at art, and there is nothing else to match this anywhere in the South West or even outside London.'

Separate to the gallery, the upstairs of Artwave West has been divided into just five individual units suitable for a number of uses including artist studios and offices. These rooms are hired out at highly competitive rates and include all utilities – even business rates and the added bonus of free wireless internet access and parking. The Landlords always wanted these spaces to be inexpensive and simple to hire to enable individuals to have a convenient work space that didn't eat into their pocket. They have been extremely popular over the last two years with talent flowing continuously through the building and are truly a fantastic place to work.

Market leader Ford ups sales and share in April

STRONG sales of Ford's total vehicle range boosted its UK sales leadership in April with increased sales and share recorded for the month, compared with April 2010. The Ford Fiesta was first in car sales while the Ford Transit continued its reign as the best-selling commercial vehicle (CV).

Official figures released today by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders (SMMT) show that total UK car sales in April, compared with April 2010, were down 7.4 per cent to 137,746 units. Ford car sales of 18,411 were down from 19,216 in April 2010 but Ford's share of total car sales was 13.4 per cent, up from 12.9 per cent in April 2010.

Ford's continuing strength in retail car sales was indicated by an April retail market share of 12.8 per cent, up from 10.5 per cent in April 2010. For the year to date Ford share of retail car sales is 13.1 per cent, increased from 11.9 per cent compared with the same period in 2010.

The appeal of Ford's best ever car range was underlined by the fact that the best selling Ford Fiesta was backed up by the Ford C-MAX, the Ford Kuga, the Ford S-MAX and the Ford Galaxy all increasing their monthly sales and share figures compared with April 2010.

Ford Transit increased sales in April from 2,275 to 3,875 compared with April 2010, while for the year to date sales were up from 13,626 to 20,099 and its medium

CV share increased from 23.8 to 25.5 per cent, compared with the same period in 2010. Total Ford CV sales increased in April from 3,310 to 4,928, compared with April 2010 and year to date have increased from 19,189 to 25,596, compared with the same period last year.

Nigel Sharp, Ford of Britain managing director, said: "The UK market continues to be intensely competitive and we are maintaining our discipline to strike an appropriate balance between sales/share and business profitability. Ford's outstanding vehicle range helps in achieving that balance, proving its strong customer appeal by the significant, ongoing growth in retail market share."

DEPLETED Netherbury had no answer to the strength of a Winsham

United side that will be trotting out in the Premier Division next season.

"We had the bare 11 players, and one of them, was struggling with an injury and nowhere near fit" said Netherbury manager Andy Loudon who added that the club had had an appeal to have the game played at a later date turned down by PSL officials.

The game, punctuated by a thunderstorm, at Axminster Town's Sector Lane was a one-sided affair with top-scorer Tom Stead taking his season's tally to 26 with a brace and there were singles from Sam Symes and Joe Simmons.

The Ambers' woes were compounded 20 minutes from time when Ryan Gay was shown a straight red card by referee Richard Allen.

Barrington 5 W & M Chinnock 3
A 5-3 win over West & Middle Chinnock couldn't save Barrington from making an immediate return to Division One.

The Chinnocks', freed from the shackles of worrying over their own survival, led 3-2 at the interval thanks to strikes from Nick Bond, Mark Male and George Trott.

But the hosts, needing a win to have any chance of staying up, battled back to win with Adam Gible (2), Alex Thompson, Kyle Oliver and Rob Loxton on target.

The outcome could have been different had Gareth Lennox and Damian Hart not missed penalties.

Lyme Regis 0 South Petherton 1

WITH the outcome of the title decided by Tuesday evening's results, Saturday's game between the best two teams in the league could have turned into a dull end of season affair. But as it was, the match was a bristling tussle with pride at stake.

No quarter was asked for, or given, and referee Andy Dyke, who had a difficult afternoon, was clearly at pains to cope with the ferocity of some of the clashes.

The outcome of the game was decided in the 13th minute when centre-back Steve Bowker rose unchallenged to head home Rich Hebditch' corner giving stand-in 'keeper Aaron Cleal no chance.

Hebditch went close to adding a second ten minutes before the interval with a low drive that beat Cleal but was deflected around the post by the lunging Mark Batey.

A minute later Julien Simier, making a welcome return from injury, went close at the other end when he burst through the Petherton defence only to be denied by a fine save by 'keeper Jardine MacKenzie.

Lyme skipper Adam Caddy, who has been in fine goalscoring form in the latter stages of the season almost put through his own goal five minutes after the restart with an attempted headed clearance that struck his own side's post.

Lyme certainly deserved to take something from the game and put in a good shift to round-off a fine season that has yielded three trophies (Dorset Intermediate, Coronation and Chard Hospital Cups).

DIVISION TWO

Chard Rangers 2

Shepton Beauchamp 2

AN 86th minute strike from Dave Aston has saved Chard Rangers from back-to-back relegations.

A 15th minute goal from Wayne Long gave the Rangers a half-time lead against their already promoted opponents.

But Shepton turned things around through Jon Spendlowe and Sam Murley who scored his 34th goal of the season and Chard appeared to heading down into Division Three.

But Aston popped up with his late point saver to relegate Hawkchurch United instead.

Pymore 3 Uplyme 3

THERE was a classic game of two halves at St Mary's where Pymore came from 2-0 down to earn a point after a 3-3 draw with Uplyme.

Ryan Prendeville tapped the Swallows into a sixth minute lead which was doubled 30 seconds later when and Gavin Fowler chipped the hosts' 'keeper from the edge of the box before being forced off later on with an ankle injury. Rob Hedditch pulled one back for Pymore only for Sturt King to restore the lead before the interval.

A lack of concentration in the Uplyme defence saw Robbie Wayland nip in the bring the score back to 3-2. A goalkeeping blunder of 'Gomeslike' proportions from Lloyd Cleal then gifted Ian Denty the opportunity to salvage a point for the hosts who completed a fine run of seven game unbeaten.

There was still time for James Beddows to have an effort cleared off the line for Uplyme who were well served by centre-back Jack Chappell who in his manager Rob Coombe's opinion had his best game of the season.

Uplyme, who finished the season in seventh spot but were the Division's second top goal scorers, now have Friday's big Tommy Tabberer Cup Final to look forward to.

Coombe is optimistic that top scorer Fowler will be fit to start but rated promising centre-back Kieran White as only 50/50 following a hamstring injury.

DIVISION THREE

GOALS from George Tuck and Steve Dunkerton couldn't save Drimpton from going down 4-2 at relegated Farway United Reserves.

WILL Aplin (2) and Pete Field shared the goals which denied Hinton Reserves the Division four title.

Lyme ladies too strong for Wellworthy

IT'S been a very busy week for Lyme Regis Bowling Club writes Paul Moffitt.

All the League sides have been in action and there has been a friendly on most days.

The Highlight of the week has to be the Ladies 10-0 defeat of Wellworthy on their own turf. All the more exciting when you consider the Men's Championship side played there the previous evening without much success on a green which was pretty nigh unplayable.

The Men's A & B teams failed to impress, so not a very promising start to the season.

On the friendly front it's been a mixed bag, although the oned-sided scoreline against a touring side last Monday was due largely because most of the men were on League duty and not available to play.

Downpour hits fixture list for six

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

HEAVY thunderstorms towards late afternoon put paid to nearly all of Saturday's games that had survived Friday night and early morning rain.

Only three games, all in the east of the county, were played to completion.

A number of West Dorset sides gave themselves chances of victory, but in the end Mother Nature prevailed.

Symene were luckier on Sunday to continue after a heavy squall and win their second game of the season at home to Winton 2nd's.

PREMIER LEAGUE

Poole Town 14-2 v Dorchester 110 all out (match abandoned)

THERE was an interesting finish in store at Poole Park had rain not brought proceedings to an early finish.

Despite Dorchester having been dismissed for just 110 in 41.1 overs they had their hosts in trouble at 14-2 at the abandonment.

Having lost the toss, and despite a fluent knock of 35 from Dave Maslen followed by some resilient batting from the top and middle order, Dorchester were unable to post a seemingly competitive total in conditions extremely favouring the bowling team.

After losing Rob Waite for 12, Maslen and Adam Rendell (17) took the score to 70 before Kristian Wilson trapped both Rendell and Dan Belt for a single. When Maslen fell to Steve Wilson, Dorchester had slipped to 76-4.

It was the introduction of John Fairless however that destroyed the county town. He ripped through the middle and bottom order taking 5-18 off six overs as Dorchester lost their last five wickets for just seven runs.

Dan Belt came out of the blocks immediately after tea with a particularly hostile over, but it was Phil Morley who struck first, having Quinn caught behind by Nick Roe for a duck.

Although Dave Robjohns hit Belt for his second four with the first ball of his second over, he got revenge two balls later when he had Poole's star man Martin Miller caught at gully by Maslen with a rip snorter off the shoulder of the former Minor Counties man to leave Poole at 14-2.

Skipper Martyn Richards said: "The most unfortunate note from a Dorchester point of view is that we managed to see off the most penetrative bowlers in Kristian and Steve Wilson, and then succumbed to the wayward bowling of J Fairless, falling to a combination of full tosses long hops and poor shot selection."

After waiting to see if the rain would clear the, both umpires and captains agreed that the conditions were unplayable and time was called as the match was abandoned.

Richards added: "It's a shame because while Poole held the advantage, the way Dan and Phil got under way with the ball, another half an hour would've been very interesting, and Poole captain Jamie Thomas conceded he was not too disappointed with the abandonment in what would've surely been a tense afternoon."

Blandford 200 all out v Weymouth 1st XI 32-2 (match abandoned)

DESPITE conceding 58 extras, 47 of them wides, Weymouth gave themselves a chance of victory at Blandford until the rain put paid to their hopes.

Having won the toss, skipper Paul Payne put his hosts in to bat, and Rob Nobbs (4-53), Matt Lawes (2-29), Simon Browne (2-35) and Faraz Ulhaq (2-38) all took wickets at regular intervals, and with more accurate bowling the total would have been more attainable.

Although Weymouth lost Payne (5) and Jonny Armfield (1) with just 20 on the board, Dean Janaway (19no) looked in good form, and with Jim Ryall (6no) appeared to be turning the game Weymouth's way.

DIVISION THREE

Cattistock v Bridport 189-9 (42 overs) (match abandoned)

IT was looking like an interesting finish to this game before the rain forced its abandonment.

With three overs of their innings left when the rains came Bridport had reached 189-9 with Dom Gape (46) and Liam Toohill (38) their main contributors. For Cattistock Ben Golledge (3-29) was the best of their bowlers with the other wickets shared.

Bridport captain Mark Smith felt his side had a good chance of victory despite the fact it wasn't a large target.

"Cattistock were keen to play but it was a very wet wicket, and a number of us were out to balls that stopped on us.

"I think we may have got near the 200 mark if we had finished, and with the bowling attack we had we would have stood a good chance of winning."

Cerne Valley 210-8 v Martinstown (match abandoned)

MARTINSTOWN had appeared to give themselves chance of victory after containing Cerne Valley to 210-8 in their allotted 45 overs.

The hosts were indebted to opener Simon Green who hit 78 of their total, whilst Danny Dancer (4-53) and Liam Banfield (3-34) were Martinstown's best bowlers.

Unfortunately the weather closed in at tea preventing the visitors to even make a start in reply.

DIVISION FIVE

Ferndown Wayfarers 3rd 202 all out v Dorchester 3rd 35-1 (match abandoned)

As with many this finely balanced game was abandoned after tea, where 15-year-old Sam Roles (4-41), and 16-year-old Crispin Brown (3-28) bowled beautifully to put Dorchester in with a chance of winning.

Bridport 2nd P-P Blandford 3rd

BRIDPORT were awarded the points after Blandford 3rd's called the game off on Thursday as they were unable to raise a team.

DIVISION SEVEN

Crewkerne v Wimborne & Colehill 4th 120 all out (match abandoned)

CREWKERNE were left frustrated by the heavy afternoon rain as a good chance to secure their first league win of the season was lost.

Skipper Ashley Lawrence won the toss and inserted the hosts into bat and the decision was soon to pay dividends as the youthful visitors were reduced to 15-3, an excellent opening salvo from in particular Francis Medley (1-22), and Rob Cornelius (2-22) aided by a sharp catch from Geoff Carr put Crewkerne right on top from the off.

A solid stand between young opener Joe Williams (18) and Bridgen (24) frustrated Crewkerne though, before Robbie James (2-30) removed both in quick succession.

Some useful batting from father and son combination George Corbin (17) and Graham Corbin (26), plus James Williams (11) added some much needed runs, but Mark Culpitt (2-33) and in particular the experience and nagging length of Carr (3-11) helped bring proceedings to an end in the 37th over as the visitors were bowled out for 120.

The players left the field for an early tea, but alas never got back on. The dark clouds that had been looming all afternoon, finally opened in heavy fashion ensuring no further cricket to leave both teams frustrated by what would have been an interesting reply in damp conditions.

DIVISION EIGHT

Martinstown 2nd 195-9 v Sturminster & Hinton

THE game was abandoned at tea with Martinstown 2nd's having reached 195-9 in their allotted overs.

Dan Evans (44), Tom Bracey (31), Jack James (29) and an unbeaten 26 from Stu Dawson were the main run getters.

Skipper Bracey said: "It was frustrating as we looked good."

SUNDAY DIVISION FOUR

Symene 232-9 beat Winton 2nd 141 all out (reduced target 186) by 45 runs

THIS match survived the heavy rain that fell around 5.45pm with Winton already in trouble at 24-3.

Play resumed with a reduced target for the visitors, but Colin Willcox (3-23 from nine overs), Marcel Grunschloss (3-56 from eight) and Liam Toohill (2-37 from seven) saw that Symene remained undefeated despite a classy knock of 66 not out from Henry Seal.

Symene had to thank opener Phil Hawkins (46) who shared a third wicket stand of 68 with Grunschloss (48) and a fourth wicket partnership of 79 with Steve Prior (35) for their total.

Dorset disabled cricket news

THE Dorset Cricket for the disabled organisation held their annual meeting at the Y.M.C.A. in Dorchester recently.

The officers were returned into their previous posts; Leslie Phillips as President, Gordon Pickersgill as secretary /treasurer, Michael Chant as chairman and Mark Pickersgill as captain for the coming season.

Other items discussed were; coaching in schools. an update of the County Championship and matches with the C.F.P.D. at Lords, Old Trafford, Newport (Cardiff), and Telford.

In March, the organisation took six Dorset players to Lords to play for England against Wales on the 14th March 2011.

Tom Griffith made his debut and made 25 runs, and then had to retire, in the morning match between players of more disabilities of which England beat Wales who batted first and made 123 all out with Michael Chant of Sherborne taking 4 for 19, England got the winning total for the loss of four wickets.

In the afternoon game Wales made 82 for 8 in 20 overs, England got the total with Steve Wiltshire of Bridport unbeaten on 27 and Callum Tucker on Charminster not out on 26. Therefore, Dorset had a major hand in England winning both matches.

When we went to Old Trafford on the 30th of April to take part in the England 'A' v Wales 'A' Zodiac and Zenith categories. In the morning game, six of our Dorset players took part in a pairs game, with two batsmen having four overs each.

Every player batted and bowled for England who batted first, making 128 for 4 in their allotted 20 overs with Tom Griffith making 25, Louis Mountain 18, Mark Pickersgill 15, Simon Penny 10, Michael Chant 8 and Jack Watkins 2.

In reply, Wales lost wickets regularly could only muster 68 losing 14 wickets all told. Tom Griffith took 3 for 2 in 2 overs, Mark Pickersgill took 2 for 10 in 2 overs, Louis Mountain took 1 for 5 of 2 overs and Jack Watkins took 1 for 8 in 2 overs.

The team now look forward to the County Championship, which starts on Sunday, May 15th with a home game against new team Kent.

Uplyme & LR 1st XI home v Kenn
Devon League 1st XI Division E

(Match sponsors: Arthur Fordham & Co.)

DESPITE being restricted to just 117 all out Uplyme & Lyme Regis 1st XI skipper Ashley Caddy still felt his side were still with in with a chance of an unlikely victory at the King George V playing field on Saturday.

But a torrential downpour put paid to the tricky looking run chase for visiting Kenn and the match was halted without a ball of the second innings being bowled.

"It certainly wasn't an easy wicket to bat on, I think our bowling attack would have caused them more than a few problems" said Caddy.

This weekend Caddy takes his side off to North Devon to take on Barnstaple-based Filleigh.

Uplyme & LR 2nd XI away v North Devon
Devon League 2nd XI D Division East

(Match sponsors: Travis Perkins)

THE overlap of the football and cricket season's and the resulting unavailability of players and once again left Uplyme 2nd XI to make the journey to North Devon with only nine players writes Eddie Clarke.

Nevertheless, despite the handicap they almost pulled off a victory as North Devon scraped home by two wickets.

Inserted on a slow wicket, Uplyme had to graft for their runs and young recruits James Dunford (19) and Henry Perry (28) put together a very patient 42 runs for the second wicket.

The mainstay of the effort was Dave Norman who remained unbeaten on 51. He was ably assisted by a bright 23 from Harvey Brimicombe.

A total of 163 seemed just below par for the wicket and so it proved. Despite a spell of 4 for 29 from Paddy Barraclough, another young player to join the Uplyme ranks this season, and a commendable effort of 13 overs, 2 for 18 from Mike Holding the visitors did not hang on to all of their catches and were unable to dismiss the tail enders who managed to scramble over the line with two overs to spare.

New captain Brian Rattenbury can be pleased with the efforts of his players. He has a good balance of youth and experience in his ranks and can look forward to the rest of the season with optimism

BOB BUCKLER RACING

And the winners keep coming!

AFTER a disappointing season by Bob Buckler's standards, the new national hunt year has seen a huge improvement in fortune for the Henley yard.

This week saw two more winners and a third place, with Ethiopia adding to his victory on the second day of the season, and Cullahill making it three wins out of five with the other two in the frame.

Ethiopia stormed home at Towcester in the Jacarado Retirement Handicap Chase over three miles on Monday evening to complete a trio of victories in just 24 days for the Nick Elliott owned eight-year-old.

Given a great ride by Nathan Sweeney, he tucked in behind the leaders before sweeping around the final bend to take command of the race, and powered up the hill to finish six lengths clear of Overton Lad.

"It was almost effortless and he jumped really well against a better class of runners," said Buckler who confirmed he may next go in a handicap chase on the same course on May 20th providing the handicapper is not too harsh on him following his win.

Cullahill also had an easy victory at Wincanton last Thursday in the three horse Holbrook House Restaurant & Spa Handicap Chase over the same distance at Wincanton last Thursday despite ripping off a front shoe.

This made the nine-year-old jump badly to the right particularly over a lot of the fences, particularly over the last three resulting in an unfortunate coming together with Cashel Blue with whom he was vying for the lead, who lost all his momentum.

Cullahill kept going however to win by 16 lengths and incur a 13lb penalty from the handicapper.

"It was most unfortunate, but I think he had the better of the other horse by then and would have won regardless.

Having ripped the shoe off, he would have been trying to protect his foot as he landed and resulted in him jumping to the right."

Incredibly Mister Matt also ripped off a front shoe in the Jared Young Memorial Handicap Chaseover 2½ miles at Plumpton on Sunday which may have been the reason for a very poor show of jumping, and whilst he finished third 5½ lengths behind Colin Tizzard's Health Is Wealth, he would surely have been closer, if not won the race had he been sound.

Buckler said: "He jumped appallingly, and we don't know why. He came home with a cut on the heel of the front leg with the ripped shoe which indicates it was probably self-inflicted by his rear leg striking it.

"He's a quite capable jumper, but the winner is an improving horse so whether he would have won the race is debatable, but he would have certainly been a lot closer."

Most horses have now been turned out for the summer, but next week Buckler gives his thoughts on last season.

Sophie secures world title

LYME Regis golf club member Sophie Keech was one of 16 Millfield School golfers who headed off to South Africa to play in the World Schools Golf Challenge Tournament in Stellenbosch during the Easter Holidays.

For preparation the team stayed the first week at the Sun City Resort, near Johannesburg where they played the Lost City and Gary Player golf courses which set a strong challenge for the golfers before the second week in the World Schools Tournament.

The World Schools Golf Challenge is held over four golf courses around the Stellenbosch region of Cape Town-Stellenbosch, Erinvale, Devonvale and De Zalze. The courses have held prestigious tournaments in the past such as The South African Open, Masters and World Amateur Championships. The format for the event was stroke play and in teams of four, within which there was individual events for both boys and girls Sophie made a huge impact on the event right from the start, and after day one she was joint first on the individual leaderboard.

From there on she played some consistent and outstanding golf to surge seven shots clear of her nearest rival at the end of the four rounds to become The World Schools Golf Challenge Champion for Girls. Her performance also helped her Millfield School team win the team event leaving Sophie with two gold medals.

Sophie, who also collected a bronze medal for coming 3rd in the team nett scores competition, travelled to South Africa a few days after winning the Dorset Ladies County Championship and flew back to England on her 15th birthday with another title under her belt, both events won at the age of 14!

Sophie said: "This tour was my first and I hope there will be many more ahead. It was a wonderful to experience the adventure of Safari and Table Mountain, as well as gaining experience playing golf courses in the South Africa.

"Winning seems so surreal but no doubt this will sink in when I recover from the excitement of the trip and settle back in to school life".

Millfield School did extremely well overall retaining the title of World Schools Challenge Champions, having won the team event when it was last played in Australia in 2009.

Sophie is now preparing for her next big tournament in West Sussex where she plays in The English Women's Close Amateur Championship.

Lyme Regis Golf Club Ladies

THE ladies Medal was played on Thursday in swirling fog which threatened to close the course in mid-competition, but it never happened and some players came in with good scores writes Ellie Langford.

Jane Southcombe finished with a score of 68, and had birdies on holes 1, 4, 5 and 17. Diana Dick finished with a Nett 73 cutting her handicap from 18 to 17, and Monica Frost cut her handicap from 28 to 27 after scoring Nett 71.

Results:
Division 1: 1 Jane Southcombe 68; 2 Diana Dick 73; 3 Pat Hunt 74. Division 2: 1 Monica Frost 71; 2 Mary Rogers 73; 3 Rhoda Elwick 74. Division 3: 1 Marlotte Howard 73; 2 Joy Madge 81; 3 Daphne Baker 82.

The ladies played their second friendly of the season against Bridport and West Dorset at home and I'm pleased to report that we won 5/3.

■ WORLD CHAMPION: Sophie Keech who won the recent World Schools Golf Challenge in South Africa.

The Seniors County Championships, a brand new competition, was held at Ashley Wood Golf Club near Blandford. Lyme Regis was represented by Karen Ellis, Marion Hurley, Diana Dick, Julia Collins and Ellie Langford.

The players in the morning had to contend with cold windy conditions, a contrast to the warm weather we had become accustomed to recently, by the afternoon the wind eased and scores improved.

Lyme Regis had two players in the prizes, Ellie Langford was 4th best Gross with 86, and Julia Collins was 8th best Nett with 74.

The Incapables win Lychett Plate

■ INCREDIBLE INCAPABLES: The Beaminster Ladies Hockey players who took part in the Lychett Sevens.

BEAMINSTER Ladies Hockey Club once again took part in the Lychett Sevens over the Easter weekend and came home with the Plate after two days of enjoyable hockey.

Unlike some of the opposition, they played in the festival spirit of fancy dress and fun, playing two sides of mixed ability and ages.

Dressed as Super Heroes, modelling themselves on The Incredibles, they looked anything but on the first day.

The 'A' team lost all their three games on the Sunday to competitive teams, but the 'B' team won, drew and lost one game. Although the 'A' team won the final round robin game on Monday, they only qualified for the loser's plate, but the 'B' team's draw saw them progress to the cup knock-out stages. Unfortunately they were eliminated in the first round and then lost play-off for fourth spot in their group.

Regular keeper Rachel Andrews played very well up front and scored a number of goals, whilst Phoebe Stewart, who took her place between the posts also had an excellent game

Meanwhile the 'A' team, playing much better than the day before won all their knockout matches with Julia May, Nikki Wright and Emma Davies scoring a hatful of goals, and won the plate with a 4-0 victory over Bournemouth in the final with Wright bagging all four.

Skipper Ali White set up a number of goals with great strikes out of defence, whilst Sarah Davies who played most of the games in the unaccustomed goalkeeper's role, was awesome with arms and legs going in all directions to great effect.

Vice-chairman Emma Davies, a member of the 'A' team, said: "It was as always, a most enjoyable weekend and like most teams played it in the right spirit. After our display on the Sunday we were re-named The Incapables!"

Team squads:

'A': Julia May, Ali White, Nikki Wright, Sarah Davies, Emma Davies, Polly Davies, Charlotte Daniel, Toni Aplin, Nina Spicer
'B': Danni Donovan, Becki Craddock, Phoebe Stewart, Freya Crawford, Rachel Andrews, Carol Bailey, Emma Drewery, Harriet Hughes

WEYMOUTH RFC ROUND-UP

Successful festival weekend

Weymouth 19 HMS Portland 10

WEYMOUTH came out on top in the second annual fixture between against HMS Portland, running out worthy winners to level the series in a game played in the best sprits and ethos of rugby.

After 20 minutes of missed chances and brilliant defensive tackles it was the Weymouth man of the match Joe Gibson that broke the deadlock.

Picking up the ball on the Portland 22, he swopped passes with winger Max Baudouin before crossing the whitewash in the corner with scrum-half Nathan Allan adding the extras. Weymouth began to dominate and continued to pressurise the opposition into errors, and it was from one of these that Dean Parker scored when he chased down a kick which rebounded off him and he touched down in the corner with the conversion being missed.

HMS Portland made changes at the break and they were quickly awarded with a try in the corner but the missed the conversion.

The try of the game saw Craig Steel and David Stone turn over a Portland attack before the forwards forced their way up the pitch and were awarded a penalty ten metres out and flanker Will Hamlin scored under the posts with Nathan Allan adding the extras. HMS Portland added another try just before the end but it was too late to affect the result.

A special mention goes to Jamie Wrightson for his work on the pitch, and it was good to see the Weymouth team gel together; from the youngest player 17-year-old Lewis Allan to the over 50s pairing of John Beare and David Stone.

Weymouth chairman Glyn Arnold also featured for the winning team who said: "It was great to welcome the players from HMS Portland along to the club and to continue this annual event of good community rugby."

◆ Weymouth team: Chris Calton (Captain), Ian Tibble, Nathan Allan, Mike Orchard, Stephanus Jacobus, Troy Burrows, Will Hamlin, Joe Gibson, Will Hughes, Ryan Lewendon, Jamie Wrightson, Craig Steel, David Stone, Lewis Allan, Glyn Arnold, John Beare, Max Baudouin, Lian Berry and Dean Parker.

WEYMOUTH hosted a Mini Rugby Festival for the under 7-12 year age groups over the Easter weekend, with teams from all over the country joining Weymouth who were able to field teams in each age group.

Under 9s

The under 9s did very well over the two days, drawing three of them 1-1, and losing to the three teams that headed the round robin league Amersham (Lions and Tigers) and Llandaff in South-Wales; the Lions beating Llandaff 4-1 in the final.

Weymouth were able to field a large squad on the two days, which meant that they had the luxury of being able to rest players for halves of each game on what was a warm weekend.

There was a significant improvement in their play as the weekend wore on, as they took on board what the other teams were doing and learned from that.

There was also a collective sigh of appreciation from the coaching team as they saw the team apply a number of the techniques they had been working on over the season.

The Weymouth try scorers were Tyler Baker, William McLaren, and Kit Harvey. Although finishing fifth, this could have been improved if Redingensians hadn't scored in the dying seconds to snatch a draw.

Player-of-the-weekend was awarded to Harvey, who after a lay-off returned to the team full of enthusiasm and commitment. Rounding off his strong running and tackling with a try, he really set the standard for the weekend.

Under 12s

WEYMOUTH U12s found themselves in a fast and furious tournament playing five teams twice over two days.

They started well against a well drilled and organised Salisbury 'A' side, and strong defending kept Weymouth in touch, but ended in a 2-0 defeat.

In their next match Weymouth were caught out on three occasions by fast and fluent attacks by Redingensians and finally lost 4-0.

Weymouth raised their game against Salisbury 'B' and started well, but finding themselves behind they increased their urgency and came close to scoring on a number of occasions playing more attacking rugby, but lost 3-0.

Royston, a strong and physical side were next and Weymouth finally got onto the score sheet with a well worked try, but eventually went down 4-1.

However they saved their best performance of the day to the last match against Chesham where a combination of strong running and physicality saw them draw 1-1.

The following day they started slowly and lost 4-0 to Salisbury 'A'; before the Redingensians took a quick two try advantage before Weymouth stepped up their game and managed to stem the flow, conceding a try at the death.

Weymouth were now playing with pride and passion, and went on to play some good rugby although unfortunately losing to Salisbury 'B' and Royston 3-0 and 2-0 respectively, but finally tasted victory in the last game by beating Chesham 2-1 with tries by Tyler Craig and Conner Hughes.

Weymouth 2nd XV 0 Salisbury 50

DESPITE a good effort Weymouth lost to the better side on the day, but shouldn't be downhearted as this was the second year running that they had appeared in the final.

There was some good tackling and performances on the pitch from all the players but Kevin Leatham was the outstanding Weymouth player for his shear work rate.

Ideal conditions for first windsurfing event

THE WEYMOUTH and Portland National Sailing Academy hosted the first event of the UK Windsurfing Association's 2011 Cup Series.

There was plenty of anticipation for high wind speeds essential to ultimate board sailing conditions which have been sparse this spring on British waters, and they weren't disappointed with the wind delivering gusts of 30 knots for nearly 100 competitors to complete the massive 12 race series across four different race fleets.

Racing took place across the full range of windsurfing disciplines including the Olympic RSX class, youth based Techno fleet as well as the Raceboard and Formula fleets. Three discards were granted per fleet which aided those with rogue high scoring races to stay up in the pole positions overall.

Final results saw David Hackford take first place in the Raceboard fleet of 20 board sailors. In the Techno Fleet - under 17 class - Keiran Martin flew home to win a massive 11 points clear of second placed Adam Purcell. Rich Jones was also a clear winner of the Formula Fleet with consistent performance at the front of the fleet.

In the highly competitive RSX Fleet top calibre windsurfing produced Sam Sills as the victor with 13 points and first female went to Jade Rogers in a very credible ninth position within the top ten standings overall.

John Tweed, Chief Executive of the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy, said: 'The waters of Weymouth and Portland set the stage for the windsurfing events of the 2012 Olympiad.'

"It is especially important to make sure both in the lead up to, and after the Games that the waters here are available for all windsurfers across different classes and abilities to enjoy during course racing, slalom and speed racing events."

"There were perfect conditions for the board sailors here during the event and there was some great competitive racing."

Two in a row for Bees

BRIDPORT'S Under 13s retained their Dorchester Town Football Club six-a-side Tournament title by remaining undefeated throughout the day; only drawing one game and conceding just one goal.

It was a tough tournament with entries from Weymouth, Dorchester and Bournemouth, but Bridport played some superb passing football and thoroughly deserved their success with some great performances from all players who interchanged positions throughout the day.

Joe Mace McKenney was superb in goal, whilst Matthew Ward, Dylan Allen and Lewis Middleton were very strong at the back.

Rhys Hayter was outstanding and with Jon Paul Avery bossed the mid-field, whilst Liam Sayers top scored on the day, including a superb winning goal in the final.

Front: Lewis Middleton, Joe Mace McKenney, Jon Paul Avery.

The team followed up their success at Dorchester by also winning the Chickereil united Tournament on Sunday.

Bridport did not concede a goal from open play throughout the competition and, after beating Weymouth Terras in a penalty shoot-out in the semi-final, defeated the Terras' other team in the Final thanks to a goal from Liam Sayers.

Youth team are county champs

WITH South Petherton sewing up their sixth league title on Tuesday night Saturday's visit by the new Champions to the Davey Fort became, on paper at least, a meaningless end of season match.

But the intense rivalry between, what has some time been for some time the best two teams in the league, produced a feisty match.

Pethy came out on top 1-0 and in doing so became the first team to shut-out the Seasiders' first team in eight years.

Goals from two of the left footers union, Simon Flux and Ally Rattenbury, saw Lyme Regis Reserves finish their season on a high with a 2-1 win over Perry Street Reserves.

Lyme Regis topscorers list: 1st team Julien Simier 21, Reserves: Luke Street 8, Bantams: Jack Durrant 6.

with a 3-3 draw at Pymore.

Friday's Final at the Davey Fort will see The Swallows aiming to lift the trophy for the second time when they take on Shepton Beauchamp.

The South Somerset side, having already lifted the Jack Venn Cup and gained promotion to Division One, will be clear favourites as they look to win the Lyme-based trophy for the first time.

But Uplyme are sure to be supported in large numbers and manager Rob Coombe, in his first season in charge, feels his side have an excellent chance of creating a shock.

"I'm sure the players will put into practice all the things we've been working on in the lead up to this game. I have every faith in them" said Coombe.

Meanwhile Charmouth finished life in Division One, for now, with a 3-2 win at Forton Rangers.

◆ Lyme Regis Under 13s have been crowned Dorset Division One League Champions. The young Seasiders won 2-1 at Parkstone in midweek leaving them needing to avoid a 15-0 home defeat against second-placed Dorchester Town Raiders on Sunday.

The County town team won 3-1 but the Lyme youngsters celebrated a remarkable achievement given that they coming up directly against teams from hugely populated towns such as Weymouth and Dorchester.

The team wished to publicly thank their manager Rodney Rowe and his assistant Roz Parsons for the efforts over what has been a triumphant season.

And there could well be more silverware on the way for the Seasiders. On Wednesday the under 10s take on Seaton Town in the East Devon League Final, at Seaton Town FC - whilst the under 11s also face Seaton in the Final of the Chairmans Cup at the same venue. Both games kick-off at 6.15pm.

◆ CHAMPIONES: Lyme Regis Under 13s have been crowned Dorset League Champions. The team had been assured of the title providing they avoided an unlikely heavy defeat against runners-up Dorchester Town Raiders at the Davey Fort on Sunday. As it was the visitors did manage a 3-1 win but it mattered little and the Seasiders can rightfully claim to be the best in the county. The team are pictured with manager Rodney Rowe and assistant Roz Parsons.
